

please let xm radio grow as a business and provide the services that their subscribers could benefit from. their music and news programming is so much better than local radio. let this continue to thrive and advance.